The question of giving wider publicity to vacancies of varying duration occurring in the several offices of the State has been under the consideration of Govt for some time. With a view to keep the ~~volunteers~~ ~~if any, now~~ candidates seeking employment in public offices informed of vacancies of appointments existing in Government offices and to enable them to apply for the vacancies for which they may be qualified, ~~and~~ officers entrusted with powers of appointment are requested to notify on the Notice Boards of their ----- offices all vacancies of appointments within their powers of ~~patronage~~ disposal occurring in their offices from time to time whatever may be their character and ~~whether the same are or~~ are not ~~advertised through the Central Recruitment Board~~. This will be in addition to the present practice of reporting the vacancies to the C.R.B under the existing rule.

22.2.29

According to the rules of recruitment issued with G.O. No. . . . , vacancies of appointments which are less than six months in duration may be filled up without advertisement. It has been brought to the notice of Govt that it would be desirable to give publicity in a suitable form to such short term vacancies. We do not mean this procedure, candidates seeking employment have no opportunity of finding out these short term vacancies occurring in public offices.

V. I. t. by

G. O. No.

According to paragraph 169 of G. O. No 5771-830/CRB 5-26-1 dated the 10th June 1927, ~~vacancies~~ of appointments in Govt establishments ~~retained~~ may be filled up without ~~their~~ being seen in the Gazette, if the vacancies are ~~not~~ expected to last only for ~~not~~ less than six months. It has been brought to the notice of Govt that persons who wish to apply for such ~~both~~ appointments are prevented from doing so by want of timely information about the occurrence of ~~the~~ vacancies. Govt consider it desirable that vacancies of less than six months' duration should be notified on the notice boards of the office concerned and unless the vacancy is for a very short period or a substitute is urgently wanted, ~~it is not~~ a reasonable time should be allowed for the receipt of applications.

Even in the case of vacancies which under the Rules have to be notified in the Gazette, it would be an advantage to notify their occurrence on the notice Bds of the offices concerned, as a means of ensuring greater publicity.

Heads of Depts & the attaching offices are requested to take suitable action to give effect to these instructions.
